The partners at Citadel are supporting the relief efforts in the Hubei province and assisting families affected by the Coronavirus.

Over $1 million of critical medical supplies have already been procured for the Hubei Xinhua Hospital in Wuhan by Citadel; tThe aid will support humanitarian organizations leading relief efforts in the most affected areas and assist those displaced by the virus.

"Our first priority was delivering much needed supplies requested by local medical professionals and enabling experts to administer aid as effectively as possible. We commend the brave medical personnel dedicated to treating patients and protecting communities," said Peng Zhao, Chief Executive Officer of Citadel Securities.

"Our hearts go out to all impacted by this situation, particularly those in China which is the native country of many of our colleagues," said Kenneth C. Griffin, Founder and Chief Executive Officer of Citadel.
